

Friends of Landau Kleffner Syndrome
Registered Charity No. 1059499

FOLKS is a charity, run by parents, representing children with Landau Kleffner Syndrome. The charity provides support and information to children, parents, carers and the medical profession through a helpline, information booklets, newsletters, family days and a website. It also helps to relieve the isolation felt by parents when this rare condition is diagnosed. The aim of FOLKS is to guide parents and carers in the right direction for treatment and educational support. It also raises funds to promote and conduct research.

FOLKS was established as a registered charity in 1996. A committee made up of parents with children who have been diagnosed with LKS runs the charity. The vast majority of the charity's income derives from donations and sponsorship. Your purchase of our Christmas cards, together with any donation you may care to make, will contribute to our work.

Thank you
The Committee
